Personalities.
Former Teachers.

The Chair of Higher Mathematics in the Normal School, West Chester, Pa., is now held by ex-ticketed Principal, David M. Senett, M. S. His amiable wife is a teacher in the same institution.

John H. French, LL. D., our third Principal, and now State Institute Director in New York, is one of the prominent educators of this country.

The Public School at Middletown, N. Y., are prospering under the management of John H. McKay, A. M. Mrs. McKay is not teaching.

John C. Sharp, A. M., and John Wilson, A. M., are both teachers in the Shadyside Academy, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Robert Bruce Hoyt has been on the dramatic stage since September, 1881. During this time he has been rising rapidly, until at present he is a member of an excellent cast. We predict for him a brilliant career as an actor.

The students in the Central High School, Brooklyn, N. Y., receive instruction in elocution from Stella M. King.

A. Macley Snyder, M. E., is Superintendent of "The Light and Reading Company," Reading, Pa.

Joseph H. Young, A. M., is Principal of the Public Schools, Indiana, Pa.

J. Commercial College, in Jersey City, finds in T. G. Story an efficient instructor.

E. C. Delano is practicing medicine in Denver, Col.

The Primary Schools of Youngstown, O., are doing excellent work under the superintendence of Ashline Oggi.

J. O. Smith, M. E., is practicing law in Columbus, Ohio.

A. H. Berlin has lately resigned the Principalship of the Public Schools, Pittston, Pa., and is now engaged in the insurance business, Harrisburg, Pa.

Silence Jones lives in Great Valley, N. Y. She is not teaching.

The Trustees of the Normal School, California, Pa., congratulate themselves that in the Department of History and Literature they have such an efficient teacher as Emma Koff. Miss Koff is a member of the class of 80.

S. M. Davis, A. M., has been, during the past two years, Professor of Natural Sciences in an institution in York, Pa., but is now a law student in St. Paul, Minn.

Thomas J. Chapman, A. M., is Principal of the Public Schools in the Fourth ward, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Fred. N. Rustan, A. X., is a student in the Union Theological Seminary.

Rev. Johnson E. Walter lives near West Newton, Pa. He is now engaged in writing psychological works.

Frank Albert, M. E., is not teaching. His address is Latimore, Pa.

Maggie Lichteberger, who was our music teacher three years, in the early days of the Institution, is now a teacher of music in Indiana, Pa.

W. W. Barber, a member of the class of '83, is one of the prominent young lawyers at the Elk county bar. His address is Ridgeway, Pa.

Allen B. Angney, a member of the class of '85, is Principal of the Public Schools, Mansfield Valley, Pa.
Alumni.

CLASS OF '76.

Irwin F. McCurdy, Pastor of the South-western Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, Pa., is one of the city's favorite preachers. Besides his popularity in the pulpit, Dr. McCurdy has won many hearts in literature.

One of Pittsburgh's most promising young lawyers is found in the personage of Selmer L. Trent. His raw ability as a public speaker has added much to his success, and won for him admiring friends.

Stewart H. Whitfield, a well known and respected lawyer in Brookville, Pa., is now prominently identified with the politics of Jefferson county.

CLASS OF '77.

R. Willie Fair, a graduate in the Scientific Course, and for many years our able and respected Professor in Mathematics, is spending his last year with us as a teacher.

Mr. Fair and A. W. Wilson, Jr. of Indiana, Pa., have purchased the Xanthimetas Springs Hotel, at Bathburg, Pa., where they will open a College Preparatory School, September next. Our good wishes go with Professor Fair, and may success attend him in this new undertaking.

James W. McCauley, taking the advice of a noted American, has gone to Greely, Colo., where he is now practicing law.

CLASS OF '78.

James E. Andrews, is practicing law in La Crosse, Kansas.

The teachers of Somerset county find in Jacob M. Berkley, a most efficient Superintendent. Mr. Berkley is the right man in the right place.

Joseph A. McCurdy is a prominent lawyer at the Greensburg bar.

D. Hartson Tomp has been recently admitted to the bar at Indiana, Pa., where he is now practicing law.

CLASS OF '79.

Linnie Unsworth, of Allegheny, Pa., is at present the only lady among our Alumni practicing Medicine. This distinction, however, will not long remain to Miss Unsworth.

65
ALUMNI.

for John May Porter, '32, and Marc Gotty, '36, are already students in the same profession.

Edward P. Johnson has recently resigned the Principalship of the Fourth ward schools, Allegheny, Pa., and accepted the Principalship of the Eleventh ward schools, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Boulder McFaul is a Civil Engineer, in Wheeling, West Va.

Although successful as Principal of schools in Pittsburgh and Allegheny, J. L. Miller has given up teaching, and is now devoting himself to law. Among the young lawyers of Pittsburgh, Mr. Miller holds a prominent place.

The Class of '78, although in general quite useful, has given rise to two editors. The "Middletown News," of Middletown, Pa., is ably edited by Isaac O. Nisley, and the readers of this "Greasy Sea," Greasy, Oil, find in Geo. T. Nisley a live and progressive journalist.

CLASS OF '85.

Gasper C. Binkley is a successful physician, Johnstown, Pa.

John E. Calder, since graduating from this school, has taken the course at Cornell University; also, the law course at Ann Arbor, Mich. Mr. Calder is now practicing law at Toledo, Ohio.

Indiana county has shown its appreciation of the ability of W. A. Coaden, by twice electing him to the County Superintendent.

Daniel W. Doty is a lawyer in St. Paul, Minn.

The Legislature of Pennsylvania can boast of an honest and able member in John D. Eiken. Besides holding this honorable position, Mr. Eiken has a rapidly increasing law practice in Indiana, Pa.

David Pearson is a physician of McKeesport, Pa.

CLASS OF '87.

The "Pelectronics News," Punxsutawney, Pa., is managed and edited by J. Lewis Allison. Mr. Allison is also Principal of Public Schools of the town place.

Geo. H. Fair is practicing law in Dakota City, Nebraska.

Mrs. Harriet Kemp is now Principal of the third building in the Second ward schools, Allegheny, Pa.

John H. Pierce is a member of the bar, Indiana, Pa.

Clem. L. Baldridge, for the past four years Principal of the Aliceville Public Schools, is one of Pittsburgh's popular Principals.
ALUMNI.

CLASS OF '92.

Sadie Row is now Critic Teacher in the Normal School of Winona, Minn.
Fannie Stephens, 128 East Tenth street, New York City is teaching in a Mission School.
William F. Renz is Principal of the Millville High School, Joliettown, Pa.
R. Wilson Allison is practicing Medicine in Wilkesbarge, Pa.
Howard Burton is a lawyer in St. Paul, Minn.
William E. Hartshir is Principal of the High Schools, Monroe, La.
For the past five years, Edward B. Richman has been Principal of Public Schools in Third ward, McKeesport, Pa.
J. Lincoln Ralph has been recently admitted to the bar in Pittsburgh, Pa., where he is now practicing law.
David Williams is Principal of Public Schools, Rossville, Iowa.

CLASS OF '93.

Lewis C. Hartshirs holds the position of Principal in the Public Schools of Jennings, La.

CLASS OF '94.

After graduating from this school, Virginia Reynolds spent a year in the training school at Oswego, New York. Miss Reynolds is now Superintendent of the Model School in the State Normal School at Farmville, Va.
W. E. Mathews is meeting with marked success as a physician in Reading, Pa.
W. W. Utter is Principal of the Public Schools at Loretto, Pa.

CLASS OF '95.

Mary A. Angus taught for one year after graduating, and then took up the work of a missionary. She is located in Eastern Africa.
Misses Fannie L. and Carrie D. Harris, classmates and sisters, are both teaching in Haywood Seminary, Monseville, Ky.
M. J. Makovy is Principal of the Public Schools at Irwin, Pa.
Another of '95, Annie F. Gries, has taken up the labor of a missionary. Miss Gries's address is Srinagar, Punjab, India.
J. B. Woodruff is Principal of the Public Schools at Sewickley, Pa.
ALUMNI.

CLASS OF '36.

H. L. Fisk has resigned the Principership of the Public Schools, Lewistown, Pa.,
and accepted the position of Teacher of Mathematics in the High School, Greensburg, Pa.

CLASS OF '37.

Ella S. Day is teaching in the Mission College, at Newport, Va.
K. R. Parke is Principal of the Public Schools, Medina, Ohio.
W. M. Juck recently resigned the Principership of the Soldiers Orphans School, Waverly,
Pa., and returned to New York to pursue his college.
Louis C. Pfeifer is a teacher in a College Preparatory School, Harrisburg, Pa.

Of our three hundred and thirteen, Alumni, besides those above mentioned, we note:
Eliza Brooks, '75; Betsie McChesney, '73; Clara E. Weller, '94; Laura C. Coddens, '95;
Thomas J. Bell, '95; May C. Fair, '93; Robert S. Jaspon, '95; May W. Cameron, '96;
John O. Tull, '97; and J. G. Truth, '97, as teachers in High Schools; Samuel T. Lewis,
'96; and W. R. Stubble, '96, as Theological Students; Jonathan N. Landgrave, '82; Ralph
C. McKelvey, '84, and William Williams, '81, as Law Students; John B. Lyle, '84, as Medical Student.